Bonfires

The soul of Zuleta is in its festivities where the whole community comes together with traditional food, drink, music and dancing. Now you can create your own miniature Andean celebration with our tailor-made bonfire packages and make this special vacation even more authentic!

Tradicional Bonfire

What could be a more perfect way to end the day than by a roaring bonfire under the stars? A band of Zuleteño musicians dressed in their traditional outfits will entertain you with classic Andean songs, whilst you sample our award-winning home-made cheeses.

Complete the picture with beautiful Zuleteño dancers for an added cost.

Especial Bonfire

Have a special event you want us to go the extra mile for, or just want to have your own Andean festival with all the trimmings? Look no further, as we pull out all the stops to bring you an evening of music, dancing, stories and amazing food. Zuleteño dancers swirl by in their hand-embroidered blouses and colourful skirts, accompanied by the soulful rhythms of the Highlands. Fireworks light up the night and we share stories from the Hacienda's fascinating past over a steaming drink of Andean Canelazo.
